Revised Section 508 Report

Notes:

Chapter 3: Functional Performance Criteria (FPC)

Criteria	Conformance Level	Remarks and Explanations
302.1 Without Vision	Partially Supports	The following support features exist in the program to support users without vision: screen reader, text resizing (from the application and browser), paper-based alternatives in NIMAS format, and alternative file formats of core materials. Some elements of the program, such as videos, interactive simulations, and certain artwork/images, cannot be fully accessed by users without vision.
302.2 With Limited Vision	Partially Supports	The following support features exist in the program to support users without vision: screen reader, text resizing (from the application and browser), paper-based alternatives in NIMAS format, and alternative file formats of core materials. Some elements of the program, such as videos, interactive simulations, and certain artwork/images, cannot be fully accessed by users with limited vision.
302.3 Without Perception of Color	Partially Supports	Some examples exist in the program where color is the only differentiator or the contrast of two adjacent objects is insufficient for users without perception of color.
302.4 Without Hearing	Supports	The program supports users without hearing.
302.5 With Limited Hearing	Supports	The program supports users with limited hearing.

302.6 Without Speech	Supports	The program supports users without speech.
302.7 With Limited Manipulation	Partially Supports	Most aspects of the program can be navigated and operated by a keyboard; however, some specific cases exist where this experience may be subpar.
302.8 With Limited Reach and Strength	Supports	The program supports users with limited reach and strength.
302.9 With Limited Language, Cognitive, and Learning Abilities	Supports	The program supports a diverse array of learners, including those with limited language, cognitive, and learning abilities. In particular, the Teacher Resources portion of the program provides specific guidance for teachers on differentiated instruction to ensure that all students benefit from the program.
